MEETS 2ND AND 4TH MONDAYS, CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The exhibition commemorates the centenary of the first postage stamp—the "Penny Black" of Great Britain. A souvenir poster stamp sheet has been issued. Copies may be secured at ten cents each or three for twenty-five cents at the banquet or by addressing Charles Dean, Room 202, Pomeroy & Keen Bldg., Salem, Oregon.

The exhibit will be open from 11:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. Society members will be present to explain the exhibits. During the afternoon talks will be given on certain portions of the display.

A banquet will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Marine Room of the Marion Hotel for collectors, their families and friends. Dr. D. C. Burton will act as toastmaster. The price will be fifty cents per plate.

The participating stamp societies welcome you and solicit your constructive comments on the exhibition.

The use of the exhibition auditorium is through the courtesy of the Salem Chamber of Commerce and the Salem Stamp Society takes this means of expressing appreciation.
